

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|----|--|--|---|---|--|
| 1. | Undated (last visited 11/6/2017) | Greenpeace USA | Website Publication: Boreal Forests | "Resolute is also involved in disputes with First Nations communities where logging is occurring without their consent, and the company has courted controversy with its impact on local communities and labor disputes." | Greenpeace USA |
| 2. | 5/17/2017 | Amy Moas, Greenpeace USA | Publication: "Clearcutting Free Speech: How Resolute Forest Products is going to extremes to silence critics of its controversial logging practices" | "Resolute failed to follow best practices and meet Indigenous Peoples' rights requirements for FSC forest certification. | Greenpeace USA, Greenpeace Canada, Greenpeace International |
| 3. | 12/20/2016 | Amy Moas, Greenpeace USA, Shane Moffatt, Greenpeace Canada | Letter to Resolute's book publisher customers | Resolute has had "Indigenous rights nonconformances in two of these forests." | n/a |
| 4. | 8/10/2015 | Cristiane Mazzetti (Greenpeace Brazil) | Email to Grupo Folha (computer translation) | "[Resolute] is engaged in clashes with a number of indigenous communities due to logging carried out in the territories of these people without having been properly conducted prior consultation, free and informed, as required by the standards of the FSC." | n/a |
| 5. | 5/15/2015 | Catharine Grant | Email to Wausau Paper | Accusing Resolute of acting in "[d]isregard for First Nations' rights and logging in culturally valuable forests | n/a |

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|-----|-------------|--------------------------------|---|--|--------------------------|
| | | Greenpeace Canada | | without their consent, contradicting Resolute's Aboriginal policies[.]" | |
| 6. | 5/13/2015 | Richard George, Greenpeace UK | Letter to News Media UK | "Resolute is simply not meeting public expectations as far as intact forests, endangered species and Indigenous Peoples' rights are concerned." | n/a |
| 7. | 4/15/2015 | Daniel Brindis, Greenpeace USA | Website Publication: Rite Aid Making The Wrong Choice For Ancient Forests | "In addition, [Resolute] also has ongoing conflicts with Indigenous First Nations." | Greenpeace USA |
| 8. | 3/30/2015 | Daniel Brindis, Greenpeace USA | Email to Quad Graphics | "[T]wo of Resolute's FSC certificates have been terminated and an additional two certificates have been suspended due to serious shortcomings related to Indigenous Peoples' rights[.]" | n/a |
| 9. | 3/5/2015 | Rolf Skar, Greenpeace USA | Website Publication: Posted: Good News for Forests! | "In addition, 3M has notified controversial logging giant Resolute Forest Products that it will need to comply with its new sourcing standards or lose business. Among other things, Resolute will have to show that it is not degrading High Conservation Value Forests or endangered caribou habitat, and that it has resolved conflicts with indigenous First Nations in Canada." | Greenpeace International |
| 10. | 2/2/2015 | Pat Venditti (Greenpeace UK) | Letter to DMG Media | "[T]he company is embroiled in disputes with a number of Indigenous (First Nations) communities, where logging is occurring on their traditional territories without the requisite free, prior and informed consent necessary under FSC standards and international human rights law." | n/a |

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|-----|-------------|---|--|--|-------------------|
| 11. | 2/2/2015 | Pat Venditti (Greenpeace UK) | Letter to Northern and Shell | "[T]he company is embroiled in disputes with a number of Indigenous (First Nations) communities, where logging is occurring on their traditional territories without the requisite free, prior and informed consent necessary under FSC standards and international human rights law." | n/a |
| 12. | 2/2/2015 | Pat Venditti (Greenpeace UK) | Letter to Trinity Mirror, Plc. | "[T]he company is embroiled in disputes with a number of Indigenous (First Nations) communities, where logging is occurring on their traditional territories without the requisite free, prior and informed consent necessary under FSC standards and international human rights law." | n/a |
| 13. | 1/25/2015 | Nicolas Mainville, Greenpeace Canada | Tweet | "Thanks @gccra @billnama. Resolute's violation of free prior consent under #FSC has been recognized by #ASI, what would now be the solution?" | Twitter |
| 14. | 11/26/2014 | Greenpeace Canada | Website Publication: Electronics giant Best Buy wasting Boreal Forest one flyer at a time: Greenpeace report | "The Greenpeace report, 'Better Buying in the Boreal,' reveals that Best Buy is sourcing this paper from controversial logging company Resolute Forest Products, who operates without the consent of impacted First Nations and to the detriment of critical caribou habitat, a threatened species in Canada." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 15. | 11/26/2014 | Amy Moas, Greenpeace USA | Website Publication: Best Buy Is Wasting Ancient Forests, One Flyer At A Time | "Best Buy is even sourcing this paper from controversial logging company Resolute Forest Products which is responsible for the destruction of vast swathes of Canada[']s Boreal Forest, degrading critical caribou | Greenpeace USA |

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|-----|-------------|---|--|--|-------------------|
| | | | | habitat and logging without the consent of impacted First Nations." | |
| 16. | 11/26/2014 | Shane Moffatt, Greenpeace Canada | Website Publication: Help Best Buy get out of ancient forests | "Best Buy is even sourcing this paper from controversial logging company Resolute Forest Products which is responsible for the destruction of vast swathes of Canada's Boreal Forest, degrading critical caribou habitat and logging without the consent of impacted First Nations." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 17. | Nov. 2014 | Shane Moffatt, Greenpeace Canada, along with Amy Moas, Greenpeace USA | Website Publication: Better Buying In The Boreal Forest | "Resolute is an outlier in the Canadian forest sector responsible for significant degradation of the Boreal, destruction of endangered species habitat and disputes with Indigenous communities." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 18. | Nov. 2014 | Shane Moffatt, Greenpeace Canada, along with Amy Moas, Greenpeace USA | Website Publication: Better Buying In The Boreal Forest | "By purchasing from Resolute without clear sustainability expectations, BEST BUY risks using priceless caribou habitat or fibre sourced without First Nations consent to make flyers and junk mail that quickly end up in the trash." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 19. | 9/25/2014 | Richard Brooks, | Tweet | "Atikamekw: no logging on land w/o approval, cite Canada largest logging company @resolutefp http://fw.to/ixsWKWd #IdleNoMore #environment" | Twitter |

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|-----|-------------|---------------------------------------|---|--|-------------------|
| | | Greenpeace Canada | | | |
| 20. | 9/17/2014 | Richard Brooks, Greenpeace Canada | Tweet | "@CheriseBurda @willhorter sad that #clean50 rep tarnished by @resolutefp inclusion. Disrespect First Nations, sure auditors, lose #fsc." | Twitter |
| 21. | 3/19/2014 | Catherine Grant, Greenpeace Canada | Email to Wausau Paper, attaching Greenpeace press statement | "'Resolute is responsible for logging in First Nations' territory without consent'" | n/a |
| 22. | 3/19/2014 | Catherine Grant, Greenpeace Canada | Email to Wausau Paper, attaching Greenpeace press statement | "In the Montagnes Blanches 'Endangered Forest' in Quebec, Resolute is operating in First Nations' traditional territory without consent." | n/a |
| 23. | 3/18/2014 | Greenpeace Canada | Website Publication: Mount Royal Cross transformed into scales of justice: Greenpeace protests the reckless destruction of Canada's Boreal Forest | "In the Montagnes Blanches 'Endangered Forest' in Quebec, Resolute is operating in First Nations' traditional territory without consent." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 24. | 12/4/2013 | Richard Brooks, Greenpeace Canada | Tweet | "No consent for logging on Algonquin territory by @resolutefp, Canada's largest logging company results in protests #1d1eNoMore #qcpoli[.] " | Twitter |

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|-----|-------------|-------------------------------------|---|---|-------------------|
| 25. | 9/12/2013 | Daniel Brindis, Greenpeace USA | Letter to Canon U.S.A., Inc. | "[Resolute] is involved in disputes with Indigenous communities where logging is occurring without their consent." | n/a |
| 26. | 8/27/2013 | Daniel Brindis, Greenpeace USA | Letter to The F.P. Horak Company | "[Resolute] is involved in disputes with Indigenous communities where logging is occurring without their consent." | n/a |
| 27. | 8/27/2013 | Daniel Brindis, Greenpeace USA | Letter to Perfection Press | "[Resolute] is involved in disputes with Indigenous communities where logging is occurring without their consent." | n/a |
| 28. | 6/14/2013 | Richard Brooks | Email to Hearst, attaching Greenpeace Statement | "Resolute also has operations in First Nations territories yet does not have the consent of some of those First Nations to operate in these areas." | n/a |
| 29. | 5/28/2013 | Greenpeace | GP Presentation to LSA, YP, Dex Media and other major North American directory publishers | Accusing Resolute of "[l]ogging without the consent of the Cree First Nation[.]" | n/a |
| 30. | 5/16/2013 | Shane Moffatt, Greenpeace Canada | Website Publication: Resolute's Green Marketing Won't Cut It | "Dig a little deeper into [Resolute's] sustainability marketing and we see . . . logging without First Nations' consent . . ." | Greenpeace Canada |

APPENDIX CADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS CONCERNING RESOLUTE'S PUTATIVE DISPUTES WITH FIRST NATIONS

| | Date | Author | Description | Statements | Website |
|-----|-------------|----------------------------------|--|--|-------------------|
| 31. | 5/15/2013 | Richard Brooks and Shane Moffatt | Website Publication: Resolute's False Promises: The [Un]sustainability Report 2013 | "For years, Resolute had logged Grassy Narrows' traditional territory in the Whiskey Jack Forest, located in Northwestern Ontario, without the community's consent, resulting in one of the longest-standing blockades in Canadian history." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 32. | 5/15/2013 | Richard Brooks and Shane Moffatt | Website Publication: Resolute's False Promises: The [Un]sustainability Report 2013 | "Resolute for many years has logged on Algonquin First Nations' lands north of Ottawa, sparking conflicts with communities opposed to clearcut logging operations." | Greenpeace Canada |
| 33. | 5/15/2013 | Greenpeace Canada | Website Publication: Buyer Beware, Resolute Forest Products' Sustainability Falls Flat, Report Reveals | Greenpeace states that it produced the [un]sustainability report that found Resolute had, "Disregard for First Nations' rights and logg[ed] in culturally valuable forests without their consent, contradicting Resolute's Aboriginal policies[.]" | Greenpeace Canada |